Cardinal Bernadette Soubirous to Leave France; where will she go? The story of the Little Flower has taken some interesting twists since her apparitions. One thing we do know is that she was born in France and had a French father and mother. She was known as the 'Virgin Mary of Lourdes'. She had visions of the Virgin Mary at a grotto in Lourdes, France. It was in 1858. Bernadette was a middle aged widow in 1858. One day, her horse, Comet, ran away. Since this was outside the gate of her hometown of Ste Michelle, she took a chance and walked there. She was taken to the grotto. There were many other people at the grotto, so she stayed there and waited. At the time, she was quite sick. She had a 'cold'. All she wanted was a prayer. There was no one there. She waited and waited for some time, so she went to the Abbess of her parish. She told her that she had been praying at a grotto and had a vision of the Virgin Mary. The next morning, the story begins as follows. She and her family were then placed under guard for the rest of the day. That evening, after some time, she woke up in a dream. In the dream, she saw the Virgin Mary come to her, dressed in white. She told her that she had a message for her and to follow her 82157476af
